- Street Swags Contact Phil Cross of Wagga RC who has 4 on hand at present. Swags cost $104, can add blanket for comfort $130. There is no tracking required by the Rotary club.
 - RI convention break out sessions are being streamed live from Toronto Canada if you are interested.

The Rotary Foundation: Marilyn Walter

Michelle Swan mentioned the opportunity to apply for a District Grant was open until Friday if the club was interested. The application needs to fit at least one Area of Focus of The Rotary Foundation. It was agreed that we apply for funds to support Ashmont Breackie Club (yes that is how they spelt it). The club has agreed to contribute $500 and to apply for $2,500.

Vocational Service: Bob Martin

- Police Officer of the Year Awards To be confirmed but the presentation of a cheque to PCYC is set for Mon 2 July

Service Projects: Joan Skews

- 'Lost Lane' Sa 23 Jun Cadell Place, lane behind Knights along the levee - Cadell Place, located behind Fitzmaurice Street, will be transformed on Saturday 23 June with a series of four murals on local businesses to be unveiled, along with warm open fires, live music, entertainment, food stalls and more.
Winter-themed food and beverage offerings from Cave BBQ, Haran's Patisserie, Knights Meats & Deli, CSU Wines, Thirsty Crow, Coolamon Cheese and Junee Licorice and Chocolate Factory.

The club has been approached by Council to provide 16 people to keep 8 firebuckets alight from 4:00 - 10:00pm during the micro-festival activities. Not enough volunteers were available at the meeting on the night. If interested, contact Leanne Deacon – 0403 858 650.

- Wagga Swap Meet Su 15 Jul Wagga Showground
Temporary Food Stall application has been returned to organisers of the Swap Meet. If you are available to assist, please add your name to list.
- Tree Planting Su 24 Jun Subject to rain!! Still to be confirmed.

Youth Service: David Brady

- NYSF – National Youth Science Forum 2019 David Brady interviewed 2 interested students who had contacted the club seeking sponsorship. While Sunrise is unable to contribute financially, the club will endorse the application to be submitted to NYSF directly in line with the change in procedure of application.

MEMBERS' NEWS:

Birthdays Marilyn Walter (14.6)

Anniversary Milestones

Bob Martin was celebrating 50 years since he being 'transported' to New South Wales without a 'ticket of leave'. UK's loss is our gain!!

Lesley Scott and Denise Flockton continue to make their way around Italy. The latest stop being the Isle of Capri.

David Gilbey, Deidre Tome and Marilyn Walter have returned from their travels! The return of these Keyway reporters will be able to relieve Darren Verus who handled both reporting and editing in their absence. Great work Darren! Your efforts are appreciated.
